The "legislator" introduced a co-operative store bill as one of his first official acts and later backed a plan for better education of Negro employees. He is a member of several important committees, including plant sanitation, wage-scale and factory education. He is 31.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our dear wife and mother who left this life two years ago April 11, 1918.
A rose that is sweetest and fairest
In the end is killed by the frost
And the flower God bless her, we lost
She shall never be forgotten by her husband, children and sister.

Ellis Penn, husband,
Ethel Hunter,
Carr Hunter,
Grace Taylor, sister,
Pet Thompson, friend.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving memory of our dear wife and mother who passed into the Great Beyond April 15, 1918.
One year ago God called you
Just why we cannot tell;
But we have the consolation
That He doeth all things well.

If love and care could death prevent
Our days would not so soon be spent;
Life was desired but God did see
Eternal light was best for thee.

Sadly missed by
Charles H. Adkins, husband,
Lish Bennett, son.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad and loving memory of our darling baby boy, William Henry Herndon who died one year ago today April 22, 1919.

God with his angels came as the morning dawned
And opened the gates of heaven and our darling baby passed inside.
Oh, how sad are the days dear William your sweet little face we see no more
But we know you are safe with Jesus on that bright and golden shore.

He is not dead, he is just away
Friends may think the sorrows healed
But little do they know
The sorrows that lie within our hearts concealed.

Sadly missed by your mamma and papa.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Herndon.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to the neighbors and friends who assisted us in our sad hour of bereavement at the death of our mother, Mrs. Mary Washington. We earnestly thank Dr. T. C. Unthank for his attentiveness to her and also his kind advice to us; special thanks to the members of Allen Chapel and to the Deacons, Mrs. Oden and also to Rev. Isaacs for his beautiful sermon. Many thanks to the Sons and Daughters of J. King No. 1; Solomon Counsel No. 1.

"EVERYWOMAN" FINE FILM.
Famous Allegorical Drama is Beautiful in Every Way.

A motion picture that ranks with the most beautifully and extravagantly screened spectacles of all times will be shown at the Lincoln Theatre where "Everywoman" will open Sunday, April 26. No expenditure of artistic effort or money has been spared in making the film version of this famous allegorical play pleasing to the eye and the cast has been selected in thorough accord with the magnificent setting. Violet Hemming, the beautiful screen and stage actress, is Everywoman, and the company includes Theodore Roberts, Wanda Hawley, Monte Blue, Raymond Hatton, Bebe and Mildred Peck, nfc, Bebe Daniels, Mildred Redmond, and Margaret Loomis.

The story centers around the quest of Everywoman for Love, which she finds only after disastrous encounters with Wealth, Passion and Flattery. The scenes in the palace of Wealth are especially luxurious. The striking character of this unusual story has been well thought out.

LONG LIVE THE NEGRO.

(By C. R. A. Banks.)
If the Negro is dying, she fades as night
In the glory of morn that breaks.
If the Negro is dying, there is no light,
No land, oceans or mountain peaks,
The Negro will never die, no never.

If the Negro is dying, she bids farewell
As a mother when her son goes to war.
If the Negro is dying, there is no hell,
There'll be no Judge at Heaven's bar,
The Negro will never die, no never.

If the Negro is dying, pure womanhood dies,
Honor, mercy all loyal deeds.
If the Negro is dying, then our noble lives
Are wasted and fruitless are our pleas,
The Negro will never die, no never.

If the Negro is dying, the world must end
Without our life efforts recorded.
If the Negro is dying, then let God send
Death; and to the throne be escorted.
The Negro will never die, No Never.
